FRIEDA WITTMUETZ

Frieda Ida Louise Wittmuetz, 82, of Route 256 in Sparta died unexpectedly at home Monday (Jan. 4, 1988).

Born in Germany, she had resided with her daughter and husband, Charlotte G. and Stanley G. Lowe, for the past several years. She was the widow of Willi Ludwig Hans Wittmuetz and had attended St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Dansville.

Also surviving are two other daughters, Elisabeth Kendzierski and Hildegard Kraus, both of Berlin, West Germany; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A service at the convenience of the family was conducted in the Hindle Funeral Home of Dansville with the Rev. Paul E. Shoop officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

DORETHA E. KIEL

A Mass of Christian Burial was said Wednesday by the Rev. Paul Schnacky at St. Joseph's Church for Doretha E. Kiel, 82, of Hamilton Street, Wayland, who died Monday (Jan. 4, 1988) at West Naples Manor, Wayland, following a brief illness. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Wayland. A lifelong resident of Wayland, she was the daughter of John and Anna Neis Kiel. She was a communicant of St. Joseph's Church and a member of its Rosary Society.

Survivors include a sister, Lillian Culhane of Webster; one nephew and cousins.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Joseph's Church or the Wayland Fire Department.

HELEN H. CURRY

Helen H. Curry, 91, of Pine Street in Dansville died Saturday (Jan. 2, 1988) in the Livingston County Skilled Nursing Facility at Genesee following a long illness.

Born May 9, 1896, in Burns, she was a daughter of Oscar and Winifred Murphy Harvey. A resident of Dansville for the past 40 years, she was a retiree of the Blum Shoe Mfg. Co. here. She also had been employed by Foster Wheeler Corp. and the Bernarr Macfadden Physical Culture Hotel in Dansville. She was predeceased by her husband, Clarence Curry in 1938. Mrs. Curry was a member of the Dansville Presbyterian Church and a former member of the Rebekah organization.

Surviving are a daughter, Elaine Alden of Whitney Point; a son, Ronald Harvey Curry of Washington; three brothers, Raymond of Florida, Bailey and Ralph, both of Canaseraga; two sisters, Patricia Kiefer of South Dansville and Ruby Landers of Florida; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

A service was conducted Tuesday afternoon in the Chamberlin Funeral Home with the Rev. James Bender officiating. Private burial at the convenience of the family will be in Greenmount Cemetery, Dansville.

LAWRENCE E. FOLTS

Lawrence F. Folts, 75, of River Road, Cohocton, died Monday (Jan. 4, 1988) at his home.

Born June 22, 1912, he was the son of Frank and Mary Crouch Folts. He was a life resident of Cohocton and a machinist for Seneca Falls Machine Co. of Seneca Falls, retiring in 1976.

Mr. Folts was a member of the Cohocton Lions Club, Cohocton Conservation Club and a social member of the Cohocton American Legion Post.

Survivors include a brother, J. Donald Folts, and a sister, Kathryn Folts, both of Cohocton; several nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be at 11 a.m. today at the Walter E. Baird and Sons Funeral Home in Wayland. The Rev. Dean Bem-bower will officiate. Burial will be in Mapleview Cemetery, Cohocton.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Cohocton Ambulance Fund or the Cohocton Reader Room.
